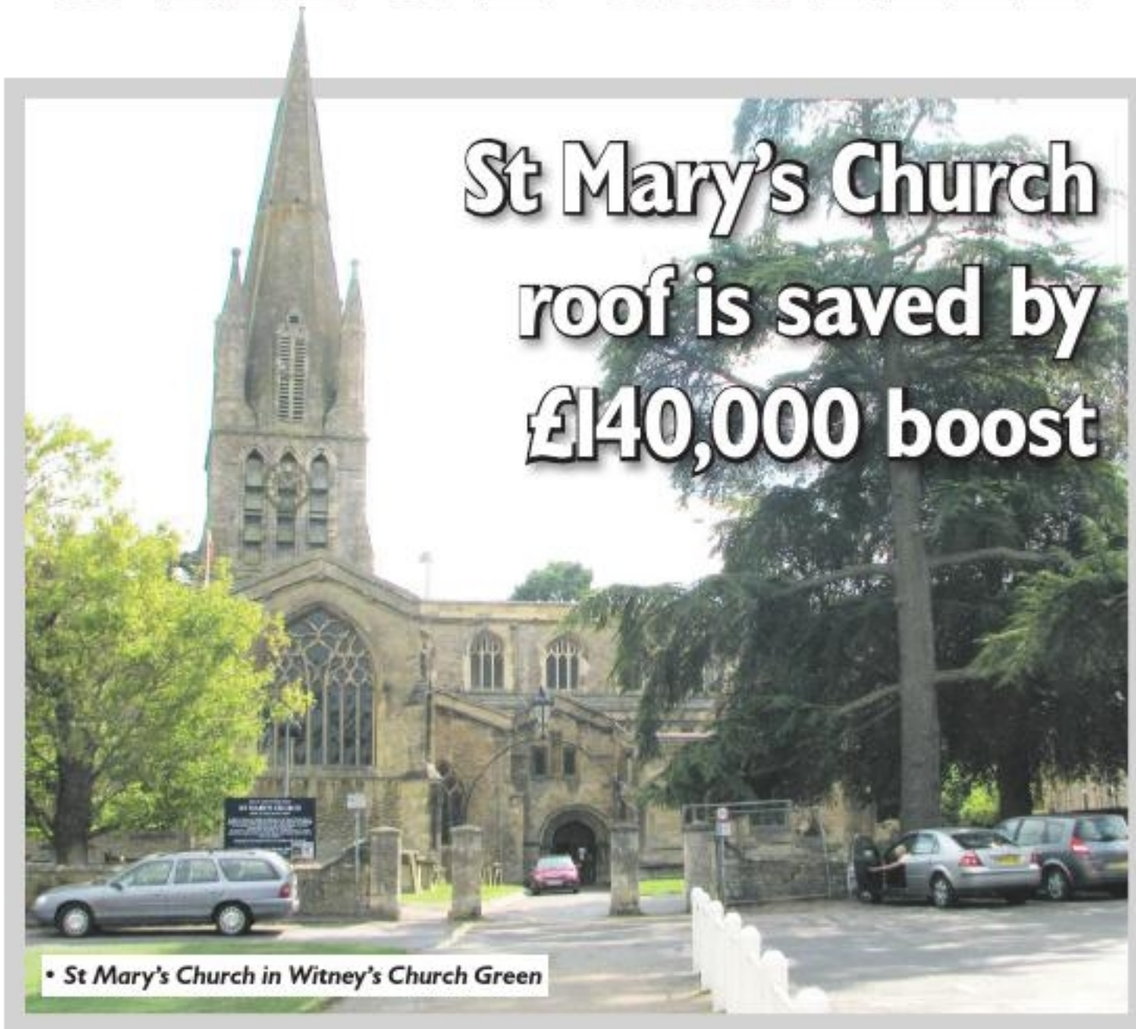
PM is accused of giving Oxfordshire extra help



• St Mary's Church in Witney's Church Green

WITNEY'S St Mary's Church has won £140,000 in lottery funding for urgently needed repairs to fix its roof.

The Heritage Lottery Fund announced on Sunday the cash would go to Witney's oldest building.

By Alex Ballinger

PRIME Minister and Witney MP David Cameron has been accused of breaking Government rules by offering extra help to his own Oxfordshire patch.

The outcry by Labour leaders came after leaked letters were published suggesting Mr Cameron offered Downing Street advisors to help the head of Oxfordshire's County Council Ian Hudspeth deal with Government cuts.

Labour shadow minister Jonathan Ashworth MP has now written to cabinet secretary Sir Jeremy Heywood alleging the offer may be in breach of the ministerial code.

But Conservatives have dismissed the accusation as a 'political stunt'.

The letter, dated September 14, said: "As part of a devolution deal, such an initiative [integrating health and social care] could potentially be available to Oxfordshire."

It went on to suggest advisors should discuss the integration of health and social services in Oxfordshire with the council.

Mr Ashworth wrote: "Is it the case that if the Prime Minister has made this offer of 'further dialogue' available to the leader of his local county council, similar offers should be made to all the leaders of other councils?

"Surely the leader of the Prime Minister's county council should not be given preferential treatment?"

But Conservative spokesperson Amy Fisher said: "This is just a political stunt by the Labour Party."

She added: "It's disappointing that the Labour Party are opposed to Oxfordshire having the same opportunity as other councils to improve local services and deliver sensible savings."

OCC is in the process of making £290 million in savings between 2010 and 2018 and Mr Hudspeth announced last month a further £50m could need to be found by 2020 due to further Government funding cuts.

"It's slightly different from the

Shotgun used in brutal Kerry Reeves murder

By Alex Ballinger

ABINGDON shooting victim Kerry Reeves was shot in the face at close range with a shotgun, an inquest heard on Tuesday.

The brutal attack on November 3 left the 'beautiful, funny' 26-year-old fighting for her life at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital.

She died two days later of injuries Oxfordshire coroner Darren Salter described as 'unsurvivable', as he opened an inquest into her death at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court in New Road.

Police previously said they were unsure what weapon was used, but that it could have been a handgun. They have not yet found the weapon.

The death of Miss Reeves, from Vineyard in Abingdon, sparked a three-day police manhunt for the suspects.

A preliminary cause of death after a post-mortem, carried out at the hospital by pathologist Olaf Biedryzcki, was given as a shotgun wound to the face.

Mr Salter said: "This may be dealt with by criminal proceedings rather than an inquest.

"The injury was unsurvivable.

"There is an ongoing police investigation."

The inquest was opened and adjourned for a full inquest to be held at a later date which has not been set.

Miss Reeves' mum Nicola posted on Facebook on Tuesday: "They may have taken my beautiful daughter but they will never have the pleasure of taking my spirit."

In a previous statement she said: "My beautiful, funny daughter was brutally taken from me.

"Holding her in my arms for the last time is something a mother should never have to go through."

Two suspects appeared at Oxford Crown Court on Monday charged with her murder.

Billy Johnson of Ripon Court in Corby, Northamptonshire, and Charles Noble of Kempton Avenue in Ealing, London, both aged 20, were charged last Tuesday night on suspicion of murder.

The pair were remanded in custody and are to appear at the court to enter a plea on February 8.

Miss Reeves was shot outside a block of flats in Thornhill Walk, Abingdon, in what police believe had been a disagreement between two groups.

Local police area commander for South and Vale, Superintendent Jim O'Ryan, said in a statement on Friday: "The past ten days have been a very difficult time for those living and working in Abingdon.

"Residents have been shocked and saddened by the murder of 26-year-old Kerry Reeves.

"Obviously our thoughts are very much with Kerry's family and friends, and specially trained officers are continuing to support Kerry's family during this harrowing time."

He added: "While two people have been charged with murder, officers continue to investigate the circumstances leading up to Kerry's death.

"This has resulted in a number of searches which have been taking place in and around the town."

Family guilty of fraud charge but cleared of servitude count

FOUR members of the same Oxford traveller family were found not guilty of conspiracy to hold a man in servitude but found guilty of conspiracy to defraud him of £139,000.

Christopher Joyce, 81, and his children Timothy Joyce, 45, Mary Joyce, 60, and Helen Collins, 45, all of Redbridge Hollow caravan site, were cleared of one charge and found guilty of another.

But they could not decide on another charge, of conspiracy to require another person to perform forced labour.

The Crown Prosecution Service has until tomorrow to decide whether to conduct a retrial, therefore a date for when the family will be sentenced has not yet been set.

Detective Chief Inspector Mark Glover from Thames Valley Police Major Crime Unit said: "I would like to acknowledge the bravery of the victims in this case who came forward to police.

"Investigating allegations of forced labour offences is a complex process."

Victim Nicholas Iliff, 51, told police he never got his benefit money as he was not allowed his letterbox key, because 'Mary has got the key and she is in charge'.

However Mr Iliff, who is illiterate and has severe learning difficulties, also told the jury he called them his family.

Timothy Joyce pleaded guilty at the start of the trial on September 17 to two counts of conspiracy to require another person to perform forced or compulsory labour, two counts of putting a person in fear of violence, three counts of harassment and one count of affray.

The offences relate to seven victims; six men and one woman.

At an earlier hearing he had already pleaded guilty to three counts of fraud committed against one man between September 22 and 27, 2014.

Christopher Joyce, Mary Joyce and Helen Collins were found guilty of conspiracy to defraud Mr Iliff of £139,000 worth of benefits between April 2 2002 and February 9, 2015.

Timothy Joyce was also found not guilty of assault by beating.

£140,000 lifeline for the oldest building in Witney

By Alex Ballinger

A WITNEY church has been thrown a lifeline of £143,500 for urgent repairs to keep it in working order.

The grant for St Mary's Church by Heritage Lottery Fund grant was announced on Sunday.

It will go towards repairs to the roof of the building, in Church Green, to complete a 15-year renovation project.

The church is Witney's oldest building.

Witney MP and Prime Minister David Cameron said: "As a big supporter and patron of St Mary's Church, I was delighted to hear they will receive Heritage Lottery Funding to restore the chancel roof.

"This well loved church is a real focal point in the town and it's so important we preserve and share its long and fascinating history. Benefitting from such funds is a big step in enabling the church to achieve this."

The grant will go towards the restoring the roof of the 13th Century chancel - the part of the church near the alter usually reserved for the clergy and choir.

The money will also go towards finishing weatherproofing work started in 2000.

The first £25,000 of the grant is set to be released by the end of the year with work starting on the roof by the end of 2016.

Once the work is complete renovations can then start on the church's interior.

The rector of Witney Parish, Reverend Toby Wright, said: "This work is an essential part of our 'inspiring change' programme through which we aim to create a 21st century community space.

"The Heritage Lottery Fund's wonderful grant will move St Mary's fundraising campaign significantly forward in our exciting plans, but this still leaves £60,000 to be raised for this phase.

"We have already raised £10,000, so I hope and trust local people and grant-making trusts will get behind the campaign to raise the remaining funds."

The church is now calling on Witney residents to help raise the last of the money for the 'raise the roof campaign' by sponsoring one of the 4,000 roof slates for £10.

The £1.5 million works inside the church will include restoring water-stained fabric, new lighting, modern kitchen facilities and space for socialising.

ministerial conduct thing. That is an issue, it's not just that, it's the lack of understanding of the effects his policies are having.

"The cuts, which are being suggested, are so shocking it causes a lot of problems."

Last Wednesday the Conservative-led West Oxfordshire District Council (WODC) aired its concerns in a response to OCC about the cuts in a meeting of its cabinet and agreed its response to an OCC consultation on the cuts.

It says: "A reduction in service provision could adversely impact on the residents of the district.

"The provision of county level services has a direct impact on a number of council priorities and a reduction in these service standards could impact upon the council objective of maintain and enhancing West Oxfordshire as one of the best places to live and visit in Great Britain."

Dad claims that landlords are 'discriminating' against kids

A FAMILY from Sandford-on-Thames trying to rent a home in Oxford say they feel 'discriminated' against after being rejected by landlords three times because they have three children.

Jonathan Beckford, 39, said two landlords openly told him they did not want a family with three children in their home, and the third did not give a reason, but their letting agency told them the children could be a problem.

The website engineer said: "I believe its absolutely discrimination against people with a certain amount of children. It's like the social cleansing of Oxford.

"The first time we were trying to rent a property in Temple Cowley. We viewed the property and were willing to pay the asking price.

"The agent said when it came to the children it could be an issue and the landlord refused us.

"We had the same issue with a house in Littlemore and another in Cowley today [Monday].

"With both of those the issue was children.

"We went through the registration process with the agency but the landlords both said there was an issue with the number of children."

Mr Beckford said each of the landlords said it was their preference who they rented to and that they preferred to rent to someone with one child.

He has three children aged six, four and one years old.

After being rejected a third time Mr Beckford spoke to the Citizens Advice Bureau who said there are no laws against having three children in a three-bedroom house.

'Errors' in Jayden case investigation

By Alex Ballinger

A THAMES Valley Police investigation into the disappearance of murdered Didcot teenager Jayden Parkinson did not flag up the fact that she was a high risk missing person for almost a week, a police watchdog report revealed yesterday.

The Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) report published yesterday found there were a series of errors made by police in the investigation.

Jayden, 17, disappeared from a hostel in Iffley Road in Oxford on December 3, 2013 and police launched a missing persons investigation when she was reported missing the next day.

Her body was found in a Didcot grave two weeks later.

IPCC associate commissioner Guido Liguori said: "Jayden was clearly vulnerable when she came to police attention prior to her death.

"If information about her death had been correctly recorded on police systems, Jayden would have been treated as a high priority when she later went missing.

"Unfortunately it took nearly a week for the force to identify that Jayden was a high risk missing person."

The report made recommendations to Thames Valley Police including improving the recording of information on computer systems.

Thames Valley Police's Assistant Chief Constable Chris Shead said: "We thank the IPCC for its thorough investigation and we fully accept the findings in their report.

"We have now held a number of misconduct meetings with three constables and a police community support officer in October this year.

"Two officers received a final written warning, the third received a written warning and the case against the PCSO was not proved."

Blakeley, 23, was convicted of Jayden's murder in July 2014 .

He was sentenced to a minimum of 20 years in prison at Oxford Crown Court.

Taxi driver fined

OXFORD: A taxi-driver has been fined £920 at Oxford Magistrates' Court after admitting refusing to let a guide dog travel in his cab.

He was called to pick up a partially sighted woman and her guide dog from Helen and Douglas House in Magdalen Road on June 17.

He refused to let the guide dog into his taxi, falsely claiming it was dirty.

The woman was then forced to call for a different taxi to take her to Oxford Station.

Afzal was fined £500, down from £1,000 for an early guilty plea. He was ordered to pay £300 costs, a victim surcharge of £20 and compensation of £100 to the dog's owner.

Correction

OXON: In the November 12 issue of our paper we published quotes attached to an unnamed woman from a Healthwatch Oxfordshire report.

The article linked the woman's comments to Headway Oxford, which was incorrect.

The Guardian would like to clarify that woman's complaints actually related to her treatment by agency staff, not Headway Oxfordshire.

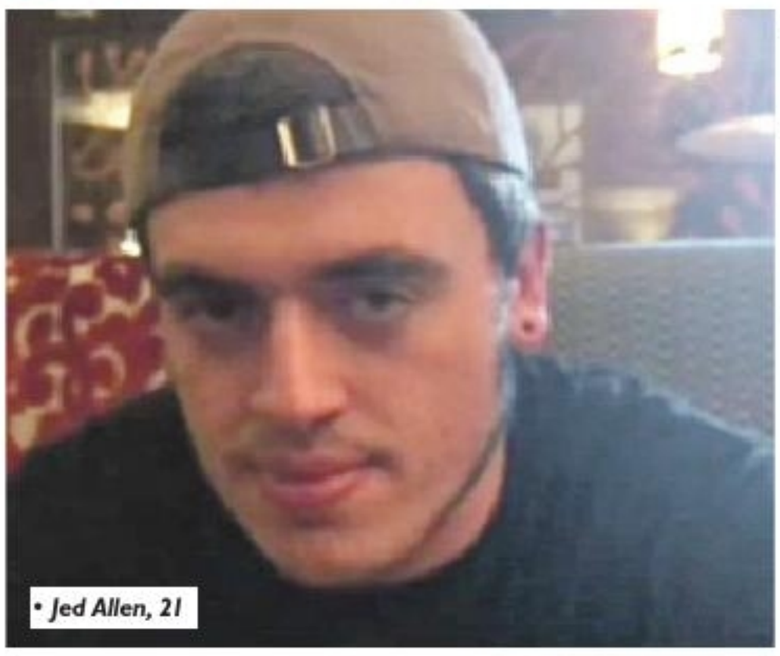
Didcot triple murderer wrote 'I'm

• The Vicarage Road home where Philip, Janet and Derin were found



• Jed Allen, 21

By Loughlan Campbell

TRIPLE murderer Jed Allen wrote 'I'm sorry' in blood on his bedroom wall after stabbing his family in Didcot, an inquest has heard.

He killed his mum Janet Jordon, 48, her partner Philip Howard, 44, and their six-year-old daughter Derin Jordon at their home in Vicarage Road on May 23.

The 21-year-old then took a train to Oxford and hung himself in a field near Marston Ferry Road, after texting friends.

His message read: "I haven't got much time. They know. I am nothing more than worthless. I have done what I have to do.

"Please don't cry for me. I love you very much."

His dad and friends called police when they could not contact Allen, an apprentice gardener.

The last person to speak to Allen was his oldest friend Jordon Dee who, having received the text, tried to call him 44 times.

Oxfordshire Coroner Darren Salter concluded Ms Jordon, Mr Howard and Derin died of unlawful killing and gave a cause of death as multiple stabs wounds at their one-hour 30-minute long inquest last Thursday.

At Allen's hour-long inquest held straight afterwards Mr Salter gave a conclusion of death by suicide and cause of death as hanging.

He added: "This is a shocking case. There was no red flag or warning signs.

"There is overwhelming evidence to say Jed Allen murdered them. We do not know what was on his mind."

Speaking during the inquest Detective Sergeant Ali Driver said Allen is thought to have struggled with his mum's heroin addiction, which he sometimes had to fund, and the fact that two of his siblings were taken into care before Derin's birth in 2008.

He also revealed Allen had no history of violence or previous police convictions, but that his relationship with Mr Howard was not good.

A note was also found on the kitchen counter of the family home the four shared in Vicarage Road.

It read: "I know the truth, I do not want it for me or my family. This is the end."

The Didcot Town Council worker was caught on CCTV walking along Broadway after 5pm that evening shortly after the murders.

He took out £100 at an ATM at Carfax Tower in Oxford before he killed himself, which Det Sgt Driver said is still missing.

Allen moved into his dad's home in Wantage when he was 10 years old after calling his dad crying, and asking to get away from his mum.

He was referred to the mental health service in February 2012 but was released in August 2012 after psychologists believed he was 'much better'.

It was also revealed Allen had spoken of harbouring 'dark thoughts' at the time for people that he felt had 'wronged' him.

Allen's GP David Ellis, from Didcot's Oak Tree Health Centre, stated that in July 2014 Allen was experiencing 'depressive episodes, suicidal idealisations and self harm'.

His body was found by a dog walker in a clearing of trees two days later on May 25, after a police manhunt for Allen of more than 100 police officers.

Storm Barney:
Family's lucky escape from falling 60ft tree

By Loughlan Campbell

GALES of over 50mph tore down more than 30 trees onto Oxfordshire's roads on Tuesday night as Storm Barney hit the county.

One family had a lucky escape when a 60ft tree crashed down, scraping the side of their Didcot house.

The home in Mendip Heights was saved by a smaller 30ft tree, which forced the larger one onto their silver Vauxhall Astra instead at about 8.15pm.

Diabetic mum-of-two, Nicola Denham, was rushed by ambulance to Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital when the shock sent her blood sugar levels rocketing.

Mrs Denham said: "It felt like the whole house was coming down, there was an almighty crash and I was so scared.

"I'm still in complete shock about it and the thing is that we've complained about that tree before. It was just so big.

"I'm just in complete admiration for my son, Alex (16), who was such an adult as he was so calm and relaxed and looked after me.

"It was just me and him in the house as my husband was away with my daughter when it fell."

Mrs Denham added her insurance company has told her the car was a write off.

Met Office spokesperson Emma Sharples said there were recorded severe gale-force wind speeds in Oxford of around 54mph between 8pm to 9pm.

Mrs Denham's neighbour Phil Keable, 33, said: "I was sat there with the dog watching TV when I heard this big crash and a massive bang. I came outside to see this massive bush on my front lawn.

"My first thought was like 'oh my god' and couldn't believe it didn't knock down my house."

A specialist rescue team from Kidlington and an appliance from Didcot cut their way through the branches and rescue Mrs Denham from her house, before she was taken to hospital by South Central Ambulance Service.

Darren Pink, 49, who also lives on the same stretch of houses, said: "It's a miracle that nobody was seriously hurt in this.

"I could hear Nicola screaming in her house and so we were all worried as we thought that she was hurt."

There was structural damage found to Mrs Denham and Mr Keable's houses.

Fire crews were on the scene until 12.30am yesterday morning until residents of the four houses could return homes.

Station manager Paul Webster, said: "This must have been a really scary event for the occupiers.

Oxfordshire Council Council spokesman Paul Smith said there were 36 fallen trees on Oxfordshire highways discovered between 5pm and Midnight on Tuesday.

Malcolm Price, of Halse Water, was seen walking in the park at around 7.10pm on September 25 before he was discovered on a park bench at around 6.05am the following morning.

He died at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital at around 8.15am.

Man jailed for drug dealing

AN OXFORD man has been sentenced to 33 months imprisonment in a young offenders institute after being convicted of possessing cannabis and intent to supply crack cocaine.

Kofie John-Welch, 20, of Cowley Road, pleaded guilty at Oxford Crown Court last Friday to possession of class B cannabis/ cannabis resin and possession with intent to supply a controlled drug of class A – crack cocaine.

He was sentenced the same day to two months in a young offenders institute for the first offence and 33 months for the second offence, to run concurrently.

John-Welch was arrested on August 5 after police visited a house in Medhurst Way, Oxford, because he was wanted on recall to prison since June 5.

At the property officers heard running inside and the resident was slow to open the door.

When officers went to the back of the house they saw John-Welch jumping out of a first floor window attempting to flee.

He was caught and when searched was found in possession of a wrap of cannabis.

In custody he was searched again and was found with a set of digital scales, rolls of cling film, wraps of crack cocaine amounting to 5.88kg, three mobile phones and £3736.25 in cash in his bag.

John-Welch was also ordered to pay £900.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Landlord fined for housing nine in four-bed home

A LANDLORD whose house was found in bad condition by council officers has been found guilty of refusing to tell Oxford City Council if he owned the Cowley house.

The three-bed home in Coleridge Close had nine tenants and was not licensed as a house in multiple occupation (HMO).

Edward Chand, Garsington Road, Oxford appeared at Oxford Magistrates' Court on Monday and was ordered to pay £750 in costs for refusing to answer a council query as to whether he owned the house.

Officers inspected the property in March after Chand failed to reply and they found it was an unlicensed HMO.

It was in poor condition, with no working smoke detector broken windows, bedroom doors that could not be opened from the inside without a key and furniture obstructing hallway escape routes.

Bob Price, Oxford City Council leader, said: "Where rogue landlords buck the regulations and try to avoid the requirements which are designed to protect tenants, we will take immediate action."

The council has successfully prosecuted 45 HMO-related cases since the scheme started in 2011.

Quarry plans unveiled

By Loughlan Campbell

PLANS for a 'gigantic' sand and gravel quarry near Clifton Hampden have been unveiled by planners.

Swindon-based Hills Quarry Products published the designs last Thursday ahead of a public exhibition in Abingdon next week.

The earmarked site is south of the A415, opposite Culham Science Park and runs across fields and alongside the River Thames.

Hills' proposals are to extract 2.5m tonnes of sand and gravel over 10 years, with the sand to be dug using a loading shovel.

Campaign group Bachport (Burcot & Clifton Hampden for the Protection of the River Thames) object to the plans and have 700 registered supporters.

Ian Mason, of Bachport, said: "We adamantly believe this development is not needed. It will have a massive impact on the community.

"On the face of it, Hills' plans are gigantic, but smaller than we anticipated. However, we believe these plans will be extended in the future."

Mr Mason added Bachport believes Oxfordshire has enough quarries to provide enough gravel for the county.

Sue Lawson, newly elected South Oxfordshire district councillor for Clifton Hampden, said: "It's a huge issue for the area. The biggest issue I took from the meeting was that there is expected to be a massive increase in traffic.

"This would be coming in and out of the quarry and this will add to which is already a very heavily-congested traffic area."

The quarry would be called Fullamoor Quarry.

Designs show plans to fill in the quarry with one lake for wildlife and one lake for angling and small vessel sailing after digging has finished.

Feedback from the exhibition is to shape a planning application Hills is hoping to submit to Oxfordshire County Council early next year.

Peter Andrew, group director for Hills, said: "We have substantially altered our proposal and we are now inviting those interested to come to a public exhibition and find out more about the revised proposal."

Hills originally unveiled larger plans in April 2014 to extract 4.75m tonnes of mineral from the site over 25 years but these have since been scaled down.

The meeting is at Abingdon Vale Cricket Club off Culham Road next Wednesday, November 25, from 12.30pm to 8pm.

Aircraftman Amy Witwick with Tim Stevenson OBE

AN RAF reservist who volunteered to go on tour in Afghanistan to help hundreds of troops fly home from Camp Bastion last year was commended by the Lord Lieutenant of Oxfordshire in a special ceremony in Oxford.

Senior Aircraftman Amy Witwicki of 606 Squadron of the Royal Auxiliary Air Force was awarded with the prestigious award of 'Best Oxfordshire Reservist' for service to both the Army and RAF reserves since 2002.

The RAF Benson Aircraftman was handed the certificate by Tim Stevenson OBE at Pembroke College off St Aldgate's on November 3.

She volunteered last year for a four-month operational tour working as a passenger handler at Camp Bastion responsible for supervising flights carrying hundreds of troops back to Britain.

RAF Benson Royal Auxiliary Air Force and Flight Sergeant Des Robson was also awarded.

He was commended for 'outstanding' lengthy service to the RAF reserves.

Oxfordshire mourns for Paris

OXFORDSHIRE is in mourning for the 129 people who lost their lives in a series of terrorist attacks in Paris on Friday night.

Nearly 400 residents marched in solidarity through Oxford in two separate demonstrations on Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon.

The peaceful rally was in reflection of the devastating attacks across Paris which left another 350 people wounded, some of who are critically injured and could mean the death toll may rise.

A minute's silence was held across Europe on Monday and was marked in Oxford Town Hall by about 60 city leaders and council staff.

By Loughlan Campbell

It was officiated by Oxford City Council leader Bob Price, who made a short speech before the bell tolled to mark the start of one minute's silence.

He said: "We're here because of the attacks that took place in France on Friday night. This is a reminder of those that lost their lives and their families. It's a mark of respect and solidarity for the people of Paris and the people of the world.

"I was in a meeting and it was on the 10 o'clock news when I got home. It was a massive shock."

Oxfordshire county councillor John Tanner, said: "The horrific attacks on hundreds of innocent civilians in Paris has touched us all.

"These murderous assaults could so easily have happened in London or even here in Oxford. We must act in solidarity with the people of Paris to bring these terrorists to justice."

Prime Minister and Witney MP David Cameron said in a statement on Saturday morning: "The events in Paris are the worst act of violence in France since the Second World War.

"The worst terrorist attacks in Europe for a decade. A horrifying and sickening attack."

Extremist terrorist Iraq and Syrian-based group ISIS claimed responsibility for the attacks on Saturday morning.

The Prime Minister added: "Our hearts go out to all those who lost loved ones. They were killed and injured by brutal, callous murderers who want to destroy everything our two countries stand for.

"We will redouble our efforts to wipe out this poisonous extremist ideology, and together with the French and our allies round the world, stand up for all we believe in."

The marches in Oxford moved from Wellington Square to the Radcliffe Camera where residents walked with candles, flags and banners before standing in silence and joining hands to remember those who lost their lives.

They were organised by members of the University of Oxford's Ecole de Management de Normandie business school in Magdalen Street.

On the Saturday night a service of prayers and reflection was held at Christ Church in St Aldate's and a vigil was held in Hertford College Chapel in Catte Street.

Woman bailed after racist post in wake of Paris attacks

Blinks of Bicester

Sorry but time to put my country first

Blinks of Bicester are no longer taking bookings from anyone from the Islamic faith whether you are UK granted with passport or not

A WOMAN was bailed by police on Monday after a racially abusive Facebook message was posted online in the aftermath of the Paris attacks.

The 43-year-old was arrested on Sunday in connection to a social media post on a Facebook page for Blinks of Bicester hair salon, in Lucerne Avenue.

It said they would not be taking bookings 'from anyone from the Islamic faith'.

Police officers arrested the woman under section 19 of the Public Order Act after members of the public reported the comment.

She has been released on bail until Monday, November 30.

The post was published in the wake of the Paris terror attacks on Friday night.

Extremist Islamic terrorist Iraq and Syrian-based group ISIS claimed responsibility for the massacre which left 129 people dead in the French capital on Friday night.

The entire post read: "Blinks of Bicester are no longer taking bookings from anyone from the Islamic faith whether you are UK granted with passport or not."

Another post then added: "Sorry but time to put my country first."

This was then followed by: "I'm a private business and not Ltd so I can say what I want about clients and my choice!!"

Section 19 relates to the display of written material which is considered to be threatening, abusive or insulting with the intention of stirring up racial hatred and producing malicious communications.

Sergeant Steve Dixon, Team 3 response sergeant at Bicester, said: "Thames Valley Police treats all allegations of racial aggravation very seriously and will always take steps to investigate them."

Oxford in mini gold and silver

AN ARTIST has crafted an intricate gold and silver miniature of Oxford's famous Sheldonian Theatre to mark 350 years since the building's foundation stone was laid.

The 8.5cm-high work by architectural silversmith Vicki Ambery-Smith went on display at the Ashmolean Museum in Beaumont Street on Saturday for an Architecture in Miniature exhibition running until May 15.

The project also recreated five more of the city's best-loved buildings including an 'Oxford ring', with elements of the Sheldonian Theatre, the Radcliffe Camera, the Bodleian Library, Trinity College and Magdalen Tower.

Ms Ambery-Smith, 60, lived in Oxford for 25 years from 1960 and now lives in London. She said: "It's a big honour. It was wonderful. I used to cycle through Oxford to school so it was nice to come home."

Paintballing arena plan for land near Abingdon

By Alex Ballinger

PLANS to build a paintballing centre in Appleton have been revealed.

A planning application was submitted to Vale of White Horse last week to set up a competitive training centre on land east of Eaton Road opposite Hengrove House.

The paintball centre could be used as a base for British and European tournaments.

Competition paintball is a regulated sporting version of paintball where two teams of five compete against each other.

Included in the plans are two 4G artificial grass pitches, safety nets, a storage building for compressed air equipment and a car park.

The plans were submitted by competitive paintballer Dan Little.

In the planning application Mr Little states: "I have been playing competition paintball for the last four years.

"There are currently only four competition training facilities in the south of England.

"The quality of the facilities at two of these sites is poor, and all of the teams and players that I have spoken with are eager to find an alternative training venue that provides a higher standard of facilities suitable for training for both the British and European tournament series."

A public consultation on the plans is open until December 3 and a target decision date has been set as January 5.

Mr Little added: "We strongly believe this would be an exciting sustainable facility for both the local community and the wider paintballing scene.

"With an increase in grassroots participation in sports, it would help be to promote a healthier and more active community not just in Appleton, but all around Oxfordshire as people would come to use the paintball training facilities."

The Plough Inn in Eaton Road and Matthew Arnold School in Arnold's Way, Oxford have written in support of the plans. No objections have so far been filed.

The school's letter said: "As the curriculum leader for PE at Matthew Arnold School we would welcome the opportunity to use the site for an extra-curricular paintball club as well as for enrichment days we run at the school."

The Plough Inn's letter said: "As is the case with many village pubs we are heavily reliant on people from outside the village coming to the pub to ensure we have enough trade, so we greatly welcome the proposal."

WHEN HEARING MATTERS

Cop sacked for canteen theft

A SPECIAL Constable has been dismissed by Thames Valley Police after stealing from a canteen while on a training course.

SC Adam Fanospour was sacked from the force for not paying at the canteen of Sulhamstead Training College between January 19 and 23.

The officer, who was based at Abingdon Police Station, was fired after a misconduct hearing last Wednesday.

Detective Chief Superintendent Tim De Meyer, head of force's professional standards department said: "Thames Valley Police expects its officers to maintain high standards of behaviour whether they are on or off duty.

"SC Fanospour's failure to pay for items that he took from the training college canteen fell way short of the standards required.

"His dismissal shows that we will investigate misconduct thoroughly and deal with it robustly."

SC Fanospoour was found to have breached the 'Standards of Professional Behaviour for Honesty and Integrity and Discreditable Conduct' set out in the Schedule to Police (Conduct) Regulations 2012.

He was attending the Probationer Development Unit at the training centre near Reading.

Didcot's muscle man misses out on lifting trophy

A DIDCOT dad flexed his muscles on stage at a national physique contest to take home the seventh place medal, despite suffering an injury half way through training.

The UK Ultimate Physique national finals in Stoke-on-Trent on Saturday, November 7, saw Mr Charles pit his body against 12 other contestants from around the country.

By Alex Ballinger

He said: "It went really well. I'm really proud to have done as well as I did.

"I was nervous in the week before but on the day I wasn't really worried.

"I got tendonitis in my elbow and it really slowed down my training.

"It really slowed me down. Maybe it would have gone a little differently on the day."

The dad-of-two injured his elbow half way through his training at a charity arm wrestling match with a friend.

The Dart Drive resident started weightlifting two years ago after an injury temporarily kept him from his first hobby, Taekwondo.

He added: "I thought everyone at the gym might give me a bit of stick at the competition but they've all been really supportive.

"There are lads in there that are 21 or 22 years old so I hope they can look up to me.

"I did find it tougher this time. I found the food prep harder. Maybe it's just because its winter"

Trophies in the competition stopped at fifth place so Mr Charles settled for a medal.

He added: "I want to thank my wife who has been great, Marcus, Jake and Alex for coming to watch and Rob and everyone at Iron Works."

Rob Selkirk, the owner of Iron Works gym, said: "He's done excellently. He's been training pretty much every day.

"I'd like to see him going on next year and getting in the top three because he definitely could."

Win tickets to Guys and Dolls at the Savoy Theatre

NATHAN Detroit is desperate: he needs money for an illegal dice game, and he needs it fast.

Not to mention a 14 year engagement with night-club singer Miss Adelaide whose patience is finally running out. Enter notorious gambler Sky Masterson, a guy who can never turn down a bet, and straight-laced missionary Sarah Brown, a doll with a heart of ice. The wager: Sky has to romance Sarah by taking her to Havana for dinner and in return he'll provide a dozen 'sinners' for Sarah's mission. Surely this is one bet Nathan absolutely can't lose?

The sizzling New York tale of gamblers, gangsters and nightclub singers will leave you 'walking on air' (Daily Telegraph) with a glorious evening featuring some of Broadway's greatest show-stopping tunes, including Luck Be a Lady, Sit Down You're Rockin' the Boat and My Time of Day. With dazzling choreography by world-renowned Cuban ballet star Carlos Acosta and Andrew Wright (Singin' in the Rain and Barnum), and direction from New York's Gordon Greenberg, this 'production leaves the whole audience purring with pleasure'. (Times) This is one feel-good show you won't want to miss.

Closing date: Friday, Dec 18th

A cast and orchestra of over 40 is led by Sophie Thompson as the long-suffering Miss Adelaide, David Haig as Nathan with Jamie Parker reprising his terrific Sky Masterson and Siubhan Harrison as the pious Salvation Army sergeant, Sarah Brown.

We have two pairs of tickets to this great show and to be in with a chance of winning one just answer the following question:

Q: This production of Guys and Dolls comes to the West End after a sell-out season at which theatre? The Chichester Festival Theatre, Southwark Playhouse or Leicester Curve Theatre?

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Lights of Love
We would like to invite you to take part in our annual Lights of Love event. From Saturday, 12th December 2015, a Christmas Tree will glow with hundreds of tiny lights shining in memory of loved ones everywhere.
Messages will be attached to the lights, and the tree will be lit at a short service, and will shine all over the Christmas period. This year you can also add a message to our digital Lights of Love tree, on our website, where messages will shine as lights on the tree over Christmas.
If you would like to dedicate a light and take part in the Lights of Love appeal, please contact the Fundraising Office on 01865 857007 or mail@sobellhospice.org to request a pack, or visit our website www.sobellhouse.org
All donations received will go directly towards supporting the services offered by Sobell House to patients and their families

SOBELL HOUSE LIGHTS OF LOVE

Every Christmas, Sobell House Hospice has a giant Lights of Love Tree erected at the Churchill Hospital covered in lights in memory of loved ones who are no longer with us. This year, we will once again be holding a memorial service and lighting the tree, which will take place on Saturday 12th December at 3.30 pm. A short service will be held near to the tree and guests will have an opportunity to view the Books of Remembrance.

Hospice Fundraiser, Lindsay Manifold says 'This event is a major fundraiser for the Hospice, but it is also our opportunity to give some comfort to families who wish to remember a loved one over the Christmas period. We have many families who take part year after year, and we know it becomes part of their Christmas and helps them to feel they have kept their family members or friends in their thoughts'. Our supporter, Georgina said: 'Every year since my mother died I have come to the Lights of Love service. I love being here because I feel close to her and the service is simple and beautiful.'

There are usually over 1,000 messages on the tree, and the event last year raised over £26,000 to support the Hospice. The Lights of Love is open to everyone, not just for those who have lost someone at Sobell House, so anyone who wishes to take part, and have a light shining over the Christmas period, can contact the Sobell House Fundraising Office on 01865 857007 to find out more information, or visit our website www.sobellhouse.org

Evening with Noel Fielding

IT has been five years since Noel Fielding last travelled around the UK parading his wit.

By James Richings

But after a long break from touring, the 42-year-old is back on the road with his new show 'An Evening with Noel Fielding', coming to the New Theatre in Oxford on Thursday, November 26.

"I just want people to come away from the show thinking 'wow, I really enjoyed that'," the comedian said.

"And if this doesn't work, I've got nothing!"

After graduating from university in the mid-90s with a degree in graphic design and advertising, he moved into the world of comedy and appeared on Lee Mack's stand-up comedy show 'Gas' as an eccentric act which became a hit with audiences.

His successful set on Lee Mack's programme inspired him and fellow comedian Julian Barratt to create their own comedy show, which became 'The Mighty Boosh'.

It's made up of scenarios based in a fantasy world that included songs from different genres, puppets and bizarre story lines, and also starred Noel's brother Michael, Dave Brown and Rich Fulcher.

The show on stage, radio and TV, lasted from 1998 to 2009 before it came back for a short stint in 2013.

In recent years, Noel has found more success with his other comedy show 'Noel Fielding's Luxury Comedy, about a café by a Hawaiian volcano.

"I wanted the Boosh fans to get on board with 'luxury comedy' because I feel like I lost a few of them," Noel said.

And with his new tour, Noel hopes to recapture old fans whilst making new ones.

"During the show there is live animation, which takes ages to work out how to do, live music and brand new stand up, which I'm excited about.

"It is a really complicated and expensive show and I always want to put on a show that costs as much to put on as it takes in tickets.

"Also, it is more intimate which is actually better for comedy.

"When you are performing at the O2, it's so massive that the laughter takes 30 seconds to get back to you, which is weird."

Tickets for the George Street theatre cost £28.90.

It starts at 8pm.

Saint Raymond in Oxford

"WHEN a crowd sings back your lyrics, it still gets me every time," indie pop singer Saint Raymond told the Guardian.

So feel free to empty your lungs alongside the Nottingham-born songwriter at Oxford's 02 Academy on Tuesday, November 24.

The 20-year-old is in Cowley Road's O2 for the third time in his career, having already performed there as a supporting and headline act.

"When you write a song in your bedroom, it is a bit of a surreal moment to be on stage, and hearing them being sung back by a large crowd is insane," he said."It's something to really get you going."

Saint Raymond's real name is Callum Burrows, but he picked the stage name after the street he grew up on and his grandad's name.

He explained: "He [my grandad] was an influence in my life when I was young so it felt right to name myself after him."

After performing at open mic nights and small gigs in Nottingham, the then 18-year-old gained a small following before signing to Gabrielle Aplin's record label Never Fade Records.

This gave him a step up, and his first load of extended plays were met with

By James Richings

positive feedback before he was picked as a support act to Ed Sheeran on his 'Multiply' UK and European tour.

His songs have been used on films and TV shows over the last 18 months, and back on stage he performed at Reading and Leeds festivals.

Saint Raymond is hoping the release of his debut album 'Young Blood' will keep him in the limelight for the near future.

"I think it is really hard to become a musician because there are so many good artists vowing to make a name for themselves, as the standard is so high, more than ever now," he said.

"However, with social media and the internet you also have the opportunity to reach people all over the world and artists are also able to support each other online."

He then added: "It was so surreal to perform with Ed (Sheeran).

"To get to play shows in big arenas with an artist like Ed is something I won't forget. He is such a good guy and was always there to talk to and give advice, so yeah something I will definitely not forget."

Doors open at 7pm.

Tickets cost £14.06.

Will Young

FORMER Pop Idol winner Will Young will be visiting the New Theatre on Tuesday, November 24.

The singer who famously defeated a then 18-year-old Gareth Gates in the talent show final, comes to the George Street venue to perform hits off his latest album, '85% Proof'.

Tickets cost from £39.90 to £49.90 and the gig starts at 7.30pm.

Sinifiction band

INDIE-ROCK group Sinifiction will be rocking out The Jericho Tavern on Tuesday, November 24.

The four-piece band will perform original tracks at the Walton Street venue.

The free gig starts at 7pm.

The band will then be visiting The Wheatsheaf pub in Oxford's High Street on Sunday, December 6.

Sing-a-long Grease

A SCREENING of the famous 1978 film-musical, 'Grease' will be shown at The Mill Arts Centre in Banbury on Tuesday, November 24.

The Spiceball Park event is also a sing-a-long where audience members can sing to tracks such as, 'Summer Loving' and 'Grease Lightning'.

It starts at 7.30pm and it costs £10.

Introducing Dan Owen

YOU couldn't pigeonhole his music if you tried.

But Dan Owen gave it a go.

"Maybe we can make something up like they do with metal. Post-Pop-singer-songwriter-blues-core genre, maybe?

"I am not really sure what genre I fit into as I used to play a lot of blues covers but my own songs aren't blues."

Following the release of his debut EP 'Bad for Me' last month the Shrewsbury-born musician is touring the country, and will be at The Bullingdon on Monday, November 23.

"I find I feed off the audience and if people get into it I end up changing my song arrangements according to what works and what doesn't," Dan told the Guardian.

"That is the good thing about being a solo performer, and with the audience, there is a better connection, more interaction and it makes it a fun experience all round."

His autumn tour will also see Dan perform in cities including Manchester, Liverpool, Birmingham, Bristol and London as well as Oxford as he forges forward to make a name for himself.

By James Richings

His first extended play is just one step for Dan to finally put himself on the mainstream musical map.

With a strong fan base and already sold-out gigs in London and Bristol this month, he is aiming to record and release his debut album at some point next year.

"I took the advice of trying to be on stage for 10,000 hours in which I gave it a good go," he said.

"On the night, there will be plenty for everyone," he said.

"Live shows are where the magic happens and I think it is where the real value is.

"And for any up-and-coming musician, my advice is you've got to gig as much as possible and in as many situations as possible to get comfortable on stage."

DART

I'm looking for what is the 'I' of a landscape, what is the changeable part that brings it alive, and it's always water.
Adapted for the stage from Alice Oswald's award-winning poem, DART gives voice to the River Dart as it flows across Devon from source to sea.
Using words from the people who live and work alongside the river, this piece portrays characters from the mythical and mundane, carrying the audience on a charming journey downstream.

This exciting student show blends sound, film and illustration into a performance that will immerse you in the sights and sounds of the Dart.

SOBELL CHRISTMAS GIFT FAIR

Sobell House Hospice Charity will once again descend on the halls and corridors of the stunning Radley College as they hold their annual Christmas Gift Fair.

There will be around 60 stalls offering a huge variety of items from children's books and toys, home ware, clothing, jewellery, food and drink, to accessories and arts and crafts. There will be something for everyone trying to find the perfect Christmas gift, or even a treat for themselves.

Refreshments are available for anyone wanting to take a break from shopping in the beautiful refectory. There will be a selection of drinks, sandwiches, and some very delicious cakes to indulge in.

Please come along and support this wonderful Christmas event and in turn, help your local hospice continue to offer care and support to those people throughout Oxfordshire affected by terminal illness and their families.

The care at Sobell House is intended to be holistic, catering not only for medical needs, but also providing help with emotional and practical needs. Services include a Day Centre, in-patient unit and also teams of nurses who support patients in their homes, and on hospital wards. Various therapies are also available such as complementary therapies, art and music therapy.

Many patients have cancer, but others suffer from chronic conditions such as motor neurone disease, heart problems or respiratory problems. They don't need sophisticated high-tech equipment, but they do need a great deal of specialist care to enable them to live the rest of their lives as fully as possible.

The hospice is also committed to helping the families of their patients by providing emotional and practical support throughout the period of illness and during bereavement.

NEW SCHOOL OFFERS CLEAR ROUTES TO FUTURE CAREERS

A new type of school opening in North Oxfordshire in 2016 is set to prepare students for careers in local growth industries.

Bicester Technology Studio offers students in Years 10 to 13 core GCSEs and A-levels alongside specialist qualifications in sustainable technologies and logistics.

The curriculum has been designed to reflect local employment priorities and will be delivered in partnership with big name employers including A2Dominon, Brita, Chiltern Railways, RED Engineering, Zeta Specialist Lighting, Bioregional and Willmott Dixon.

The school is part of a growing network of Studio Schools now open across the country, combining practical projects with coaching and work experience from industry partners.

Principal designate Richard Brown said: "Bicester Technology Studio will develop students' practical, academic and problem-solving skills through real-world projects and exceptional links with leading local employers.

"Students will gain excellent transferable skills to take into employment and higher education, as well as getting a head start into the area's growth industries.

"Our vision is to train tomorrow's business leaders and technological innovators. Our specialisms in sustainable technologies and logistics will offer students a clear line of sight into employment in two of the UK's most exciting and fastest-growing sectors.

"These young people will have the skills, confidence and know-how required to shape the future of Bicester and beyond."

In its first year, Bicester Technology Studio will take just 40 Year 10 students and 70 Year 12 students. It will eventually grow to cater for up to 310 students. The school is sponsored by Activate Learning, the education group behind City of Oxford College, Reading College and Banbury and Bicester College. The group's schools division includes The Bicester School, UTC Oxfordshire and UTC Reading – the country's only UTC to be rated outstanding by Ofsted.

Bicester Technology Studio is now recruiting. To find out more about the school and make an application visit

Kia reveals four new models

• A Kia PacWest Adventure Sorento

KIA Motors America unveiled four customised vehicles at this the Specialty Equipment Market Association (SEMA) show this month.

The SEMA was launched in 1963 by car enthusiasts who wanted to create a car parts market for car fanatics.

The first SEMA show was held four years later in 1967, allowing over 6,000 car companies worldwide to provide ways of developing newly introduced parts, tools and components whilst showing various concept cars.

By James Richings

At this year's show in Las Vegas from November 3 to November 6, Kia Motors America revealed its new A1A Optima, PacWest Adventure Sorento, Photo Safari Sedona, Trail'ster, Forte Koup Mud Bogger, and brought back last year's hit the Ballast Point Sedona.

Trail'ster

THE Trail'ster is for those venturing on snowy, muddy or wet road trips.

Based on the popular Kia Soul, the turbocharged Trail'ster comes with a roll-top canvas roof, and armoured aluminium skid plates.

KMA's vice resident of marketing communications, Tim Chaney, said: "This year's show gave us the opportunity to embrace the spirit of adventure."

Ballast Point Sedona

BACK by popular demand is the bar/car, the Ballast Point Sedona.

It has a flip-top roof and fold-down front bar for its main purpose, to serve drinks.

It comes with two beer taps, a drinks cooling box with 120-feet of copper beer-cooling coils and up to four half-barrel of Ballast Point's finest.

A1A Optima

THE A1A Optima takes inspiration from Florida.

Its sliced top and shortened windscreen give it a sporty look, and reinforced steel tubes are hidden within the body so the car retains its rigid structure.

The powerful 245bhp turbocharged four-cylinder engine is combined with a high-performance exhaust whilst its sport suspension lowers the ride height.

The car has converted the standard eight-passenger model to a two-passenger vehicle with room for a professional editing studio.

Forte Koup Mud Bogger

TO accommodate the Koup Mud Bogger's massive wheel and tyre combo, the fenders and side skirts have been modified.

It is fitted with a hand-built, white-powder-coated brush guard and a rigid LED light bar so it can be used in tough terrain, day or night.

It is styled to serve a love for getting 'dirty on four wheels'.

PacWest Adventure Sorento

THE PacWest Adventure Sorento is inspired by the Pacific Northwest forests, equipped with twin LED low-profile light bars on the front bumper and roof rack.

The 'go-anywhere' car is six inches higher than a standard Sorento.

And it also has an eight-inch 'Alpine Mobile Media' entertainment system.

James Hall would like to thank

U's survive a big cup fright in windy affair

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD United survived an FA Cup scare on Tuesday night in their 3-1 win over National League side Braintree in a blustery evening at the Kassam Stadium as Storm Barney raged around the stadium.

The U's fell behind early on in the replay after a Kenny Davis penalty, but soon responded through talisman Liam Sercombe and a second-half brace from forward Hoban sealed the win for United.

Braintree tested U's keeper Benji Buchel on nine minutes with Michael Cheek clipping an effort off the bar with the opening twenty minutes seemingly cagey for both sides who looked nervous at times.

A curling free kick from U's winger Alex Macdonald clipped the top of bar on 29 minutes before Braintree took the lead just four minutes later.

Chez Issac got himself into the U's box only to go down after being sandwiched between MacDonald and Joe Skarz.

Davis passed the ball into the net causing anxious United fans to show their nerves in the stands before Sercombe levelled the scores on with three minutes before the half-time whistle, slipping the ball past Will Norris after he was put through by George Baldock.

Sercombe then scuppered a chance for a second of the night, volleying an effort on to the bar on 51 minutes and Kemar Roofe then saw his clever flick finish narrowly wide.

Just after the hour mark United were in front with Hoban netting his second in two starts following a powered ball across goal from Kemar Roofe for the Irishman to tap in.

Braintree battled hard but Oxford's fitness and passing approach saw the away side begin to tire in their defences with MacDonald just firing wide of the post.

Hoban then got the crucial goal on 78 minutes after Callum O'Dowda was muscled over by Mitch Brundle and the Irishman executed his penalty with style.

United were ultimately the deserved winners on the night with Michael Appleton's side through to face off against National League Conference side Forest Green Rovers at home on December 6.

City back in form at Bath

FORMER Didcot Town striker Conor McDonagh netted for Oxford City as they returned to winning ways in the league with a 3-1 away win over Bath City on Saturday.

Darren Pond and Carlos Pifarre also got the goals for the Blues as they never let the home side have much influence in the tough encounter.

Omari Sterling-James, currently in shining form for City supplied a sweetly struck free-kick into the box which was headed home by McDonagh.

On 28 minutes City added a second with Sterling-James once again involved as his shot wasn't held by Steve Phillips and Darren Pond planting the effort past the 'keeper.

Frankie Artus' free-kick caused Oxford some panic shortly afterwards but the shot was just wide of the City post.

Pifarre nearly made it three for City as the game moved into the second half but Phillips got a touch to it.

However, the City midfielder was able to get his goal on 50 minutes following a Paul Stonehouse free kick which was played in for Pifarre to knock in.

Barca fun in the sun for Chipping

CHIPPING Norton under 12's enjoyed a tour of Barcelona during the October half-term week last month.

The club took 18 players, supported by players' parents and a team of coaches, to the Spanish coast in the week of October 26 to October 31.

The players received hospitality from Barcelona rugby club which culminated in a five-team tournament at the end of the week.

The boys played against Barcelona in their first match, which they drew before they beat Sant Boi RFC and then a second Barcelona team.

In the final match, the side then took on a Berlin side in which they held on to win by two tries.

Following the tournament, the Chipping players then watched the Rugby World Cup Final on October 31 and sharing a barbecue with the teams.

As part of their tour the players also got to train alongside coaches from Barcelona Rugby Club on their 3G AstroTurf, where they were coached in movement and skill development.

In between sessions, the club also spent a day at an olive grove in the city where they produced their own olive oil as well as touring FC Barcelona's football stadium, the Camp Nou as part of their travels around the Spanish city.

Appleton reflects on his time at Yellows

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD United manager Michael Appleton has spoken of how he feels that everything at the club seems to be 'coming together' at the right time.

The former Manchester United player picked up the reins at Grenoble Road from Gary Waddock last July and after avoiding relegation with the club last season, has gone on to lead the U's to second in the table so far this year.

The 39-year-old had previously been at Blackburn Rovers back in 2013 but after only winning four of his 15 games in charge, was relieved of his duties.

When asked if he thought his club were on a bit of a roll, he replied: "Yes. I feel that everybody at the club believes we're on a bit of a roll, we're just not getting carried away with ourselves just yet.

"I think we've only lost twice in thirty games and that shows that the staff, players and everyone associated with the club are doing something right."

Appleton's first two league games of the season ended in draws before they went on a run that has seen them score more goals than anyone else in the top five.

The signings of Liam Sercombe from Exeter City and Kemar Roofe from West Bromwich Albion have been a masterstroke with the players both netting seven goals a piece in the league.

The manager said of his team: "We've got some good players who are honest, humble and coming in every day to work their socks off so I'd like to think that we can continue this form for the rest of the season.

He also added that he feels the club is 'stable' moving forward.

He said: "This was not a stable club when I first came in but this season we've made sure that we've had the right opportunities to bring in the right players and have the right team for this league.

Stars shine in big win over Dynamos

OXFORD City Stars jumped to fourth in the NIHL South 1 with a dominating 4-1 win over the Invicta Dynamos at Oxpens Road on Saturday.

The match was preceded by the playing of the French national anthem, in respect of the terror attacks that had occurred in Paris the night before.

Joe Edwards and Mike Whillock combined well to force Dynamos' netminder Damien King into action before the Stars nearly in front in the 13th minute.

Nick Oliver skated the length of the ice to place the puck into the net only to have it ruled out by the referee however the Stars won the resulting face off and Shane Moore planted the puck between the posts to send them in front.

The Stars doubled their lead a few seconds into the second period with Darren Elliot cutting in from the right to finish home.

Invicta cut the deficit to one goal shortly afterwards with Bailey Wootton finishing after being set up by Eriks Ozollapa.

• Abingdon golfer Eddie Pepperell

Pepperell falters despite strong start

The 24-year-old got off to a good start at Lake Malaren Golf Club in Shanghai on Thursday scoring a round of 68 in the first round.

However, his strong start soon faded as he then struck a round of 74 on the Friday putting himself back to 35th place which he failed to recover from.

Pepperell struck an erratic opening seven holes, which included a double bogey amongst two other bogeys.

Two more bogeys followed for the Frilford Health member before he rectified his run with a series of birdies.

Moving into the third day, the golfer struck a better round of 72 and finishing off his run in the competition on the Sunday with a two under par score.

He finished the competition in tied 53rd position taking home just under £20,000 in prize money from the tournament.

Swedish golfer Kristoffer Broberg secured the win on the final day beating American Patrick Reed in a play-off after they both finished on seventeen under par.

Pepperell is currently ranked 104th in the world according to the OWGR rankings.

He had to withdraw from the Turkish Airlines open earleir this month due to a back problem that he picked up last month, which may have made an impact on the golfer's run in Shanghai.

Millers blast past poor Bashley

NORTH Leigh produced a comprehensive thrashing of basement boys Bashley FC on Saturday in an 8-0 away win.

Millers' striker Kieran Sanders had the ball in the net for the first one after eight minutes from ten yards.

Morgan Williams made it two by converting a corner from close range before attacking midfielder Callum McNish added a third, hitting a powerful shot into the Bashley net.

Bashley were overwhelmed with their only notable chance in the frantic first half coming from winger Dammy Bada whose shot was blocked wide.

Three minutes after the restart it was four for the millers as Elliot Osborne-Ricketts got amongst the goals before Jon Else made it five on 54 minutes hitting a powerful right-footed shot to grab his goal.

Bashley's defence finally had a respite from the siege on the goal for around twenty minutes before the Millers livened up to embarrass the home side further.

Jozef Fullerton notched the Millers' sixth on 79 minutes after Sanders sent in a teasing cross before Jamie Cook rounded off the scoring.

The forward struck against a visibly exhausted Bashley defence in the 82nd and the 88th minute, giving the Millers their eleventh win of the season.

The Millers played Simbridge last night as we went to press.

FOOTBALL: Oxford City have been given a home tie in third qualifying round for the FA Trophy against Southern League Division One side Marlow.

Chinnor lose in battle with the elements

CHINNOR were unable to combat a lashing gale as well as their tough opponents Worthing in an away 23-15 defeat in the National League 2 South..

A converted penalty by Greg Goodfellow got Chinnor underway before Keiron Goss crossed over for an unconverted try.

Worthing then struck back through a converted penalty by O'Hagan, however Chinnor were back on top after Ben Manning scored under the posts.

The home side's full back then managed to pounce on a cross field kick to score and put them in front before the try was then converted by O'Hagan.

Chinnor couldn't battle the home side's drives forward and failed to cross again, conceding defeat in a tightly-fought encounter.

'FUN RACE' FOR GROSJEAN

LOTUS F1 picked up their third double points-scoring finish of the season on Sunday, as Romain Grosjean came eighth and Pastor Maldonado 10th at Interlagos.

Both drivers benefitted from the post-race disqualification of Felipe Massa because of a tyre irregularity, although Williams have appealed the decision and could see their car reinstated.

Grosjean had started 14th on the grid and was up to 11th by the end of the first lap.

He steadily made progress up the order before finishing ninth on the road, battling a number of drivers along the way.

"It was a fun race, and I enjoyed going through the field with some nice overtaking manoeuvres with our aggressive race strategy," said Grosjean.

"It was quite hard to follow the cars but we had good power to overtake into turn one.

"The next race will be my last one with the team and taking the chequered flag in Abu Dhabi will be very special but I will give my best to bring a good result."

Maldonado had a more eventful race that saw him pick up a five-second penalty for a collision with Marcus Ericsson, which saw the Venezuelan pitch the Sauber into a spin.

He finished 11th on the road after he was overtaken by Max Verstappen's Toro Rosso in the closing stages of the race.

Maldonado said: "It was a very active race with lots going on.

"We used a different strategy to most by running with the slower but more durable tyre for the first stint, when it was difficult to make progress against those on the softs.

"Then at the end we were defending with harder tyres from those with softer and fresher ones so it was difficult to keep P10, but from where we started it was a good race."

Grosjean is 11th in the drivers' championship standings with 49 points, while Maldonado is 14th with 27.

The final race of the season takes place in Abu Dhabi on November 29.
